

The Arora Hotel Gatwick/Crawley LGW Jobs Fair Exhibitor Terms and Conditions

- 1 Affixing signs, displays and posters to walls may only
- 2 Licensing and statutory regulations
The hotel, functions and conferences within it are contractor other than those arranged by the Hotel at subject to statutory regulations including those your function, you must undertake to indemnify the relating to fire precautions and entertainment. The regulations must be strictly observed and from an act or default by any of your servants or a copy is available from the hotel.
- 3 Functions and conferences are required to finish at the this indemnity is also to include cover under the time agreed when the booking is made. Extensions to Health & Safety at Work Act 1974. Any outside this may be changeable and are at the sole discretion contractor employed by the customer must report of the hotel and are in any event subject to the to the banqueting manager or Hotel engineer and statutory licensing regulations referred to in clause 2. contractors must comply with appropriate legislation
- 4 No food or drink is to be brought into the hotel including the Fire Precaution Act. We reserve the right without prior agreement and additional charges may to refuse access, without prejudice to any contractor. be applied where consent if given. 8 The Hotel name, logo and telephone number cannot
- 5 Minimum bar spend of £500 is applicable when a cash be used in any advertising or publicity, without the bar is requested. prior knowledge and consent of the General manager.
- 6 Goods and services cannot be bought or sold on the by carried out within the authorization of the Hotel. premises, and no tickets may be sold at the door.
- 7 Should you wish to employ the services of any outside